

Link Light Rail makes trips from the airport station to downtown Seattle between 5am and 1am, Monday through Saturday (the last train departs the airport at 12:10am), and from 6am to midnight on Sunday (the last train departs the airport at 11:05pm). Trains arrive every 7.5 to 15 minutes, depending on the time of day, and take about 34 minutes each way. One-way fare for adults ranges from $2 to $2.75.

King County Metro Transit bus stops are located on International Blvd (Hwy 99) and S 176th St, by the Link Light Rail station. Timetables and route maps are displayed on the bus stop signs and are available at the ground transportation information booth on the third floor of the parking garage, near Island 2.

► Taxis, Limos, Town Cars & Ride Sharing

At Sea-Tac Airport, taxis are available on the third floor of the parking garage. One-way rides between the airport and downtown range from $38 to $48. To arrange for a limo, town car, or taxi ride in advance, use any of the travelers' information boards in baggage claim or visit the ground transportation information booth on the third floor of the parking garage.

In downtown Seattle, ride-sharing companies, such as Sidecar, Lyft, and Uber, offer in-city transportation from local drivers. All rides can be scheduled using smartphone apps.

► Car Services

All car rental companies providing service at Sea-Tac are located in the car-rental facility. Dedicated shuttle buses run 24/7 to pick up passengers outside baggage claim at the north and south ends of the main terminal.

Visitors can rent vehicles by the hour from Zipcar or by the minute from Car2Go.
